

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TAKING THE SAFEGUARDING YOUTH TRAINING (SYT)

Safeguarding youth is a value at the core of the Scouting movement. It is vital to maintain a culture of active supervision, awareness, and safety at all levels of Scouting. Safeguarding Youth training will help you prevent harm to youth, is required for all Scouting America registered volunteers and is a joining requirement. You must complete all the lessons in this course and achieve an 80% or better score on the Course Test to receive credit for this training.

This course will now be renewed yearly, a 20-minute refresher course will be required every year after the initial completion.

1. Go to <http://my.scouting.org>
2. Enter your login name and password
3. On the opening page of my.scouting.org, click on the Safeguarding Youth logo for English or Spanish.

On the Safeguarding Youth Training page of the BSA Learn Center select the enroll button to add the SYT to your account.

The Safeguarding Training consists of three modules and a test module. All four modules will need to be completed to be considered trained for the Safeguarding Youth Training. Once you have completed the 3 courses you may take the SYT Certification test. Select the START button to take the test.

When the four modules have been completed you will see a Y01 completion along with the date you completed the training will show on my.scouting.org by selecting from the pulldown menu "My training" from the "SYT" tab in my.scouting.org.

You may now print out a Safeguarding Training certificate by selecting the printer icon.
